Barney Divorce Case. The following is a revised copy of the important decision of Judge Purcell in the long-contested Barney divorce case:

Washington County, D. C.

ORPRANS' COURT:

John W. De Kraft, the next friend and a relation of the minor children of Samuel Chase Basney, and Mary E. De Kraft, formerly Barney, now deceased. The above-named John W. De Kraft filed his petition some months since in this court, praying that some competent person should be appointed guardian to said children. That their father, the said Samuel C. Barney, was disqualified and unfit to act as such, and offered as evidence in support of the charges, amongst other facts, a record duly certified, purporting to be a divorce granted by the district court of Jasper county, and State of lowa, on the lath day of September, 1860, in favor of the said Mary E. De Kraft Barney against the said Samuel C. Barney, in his answer to the above petition, decless the allegations in said petition, and insists that he is not disqualified from acting as guardian to said decree of divorce of the district of Joseph county, lowa, as far as this court has jurisdiction to determine this case. The sentence pronounced by the court granting the said decree of divorce of the district of Joseph county, lowa, as far as this court has jurisdiction, that it had jurisdiction of the parties and of the subject-matter, the law having been fully compiled with by publication, and that a notice had also, with a copy of the parties and of the subject-matter, the law having been fully compiled with by publication, and that the said defendant, Samuel Chase Barney, born Mary E. De Kraft, was entitled to a divorce from the bonds of matrimony from Samuel Chase Barney, her said husband, to whom she was married in the year 1847. The said sentence further stated that the acts, conduct and character of the said defendant, Sam'l Chase Barney, had been of such a character as to render him unfit to have the custody of the minor children of the said marriage, and that they be placed under the control of their said mother during their minority. If the said court of lowa erred, this court has no power to give him, the said Samuel Chase Barney, and Jo oblideen came, expressly declared in his will that no husband of his daughter should control any part of the estate so devised. It appears from satisfactory evidence that Dr. Harry's indusely has been the collector and agent for the property in question, belonging to said minor children, for some time past, any that he is undoubtedly better acquainted wish the value, income, and condition of the same than any suntried person, and that he is known in this community to be a gentleman of high integrity. And the court, in the exercise of its discretion, believes him, under all circumstances, a proper person to be the guardian of the said minor children.

Dr. Hervey Lindaley is hereby appointed guardian of Bamuel C. Barney, ir., Edward D. Harney, Hebe G. Barney, and Clayonia Barney, the minor children, above referred to; which must enter into bond with sureties to be approved by this court, in the sun of thirty thousand dollars; and the court further orders that all the proper corte of this suit be paid out of the estate.

Mr. Davidge, counsel for Mr. Barney, took an appeal from the decision of the court.

Dr. Lindsley appeared in court, and was duly qualified as guardian for the said minor children.

Mr. John W. De Kraft, James Maguire, Thomas J. Fisher, and Gilbert M. Wight were children.

"The Golden Calf." The colebrated poem of Rev. John Pierpont, President of the Washington Association Lecture Course, which he has delivered for several winters with such accoptance in the prominent cities of the Union, was read at the Smithsonian last night. The wit of the venerable poet, his sarcastic dealing with the falsities of society, are always sharp and pungent. In this poem the insane desire for gold is admirably presented. The closing parallel of the sacrifice of Moloch in the valley of Tophet and that of the maiden devoted by ambitious parents to an unworthy sacrifice at the altar of Hymen, was very fine.

The temperance meeting held at the hall of Good Samaritan Division, on E street, last night, was a success. An appreciative andionce instened with pleased attention to interesting addresses by Rev. Chaplain Crane, of the New York Twenty-third regiment; Hon. D. P. Holloway, Commissioner of Patents; Mr. Savage, and others. An announcement was made of a similar meeting to be held on the second Tuesday in February. Surely, amid the universal tide of liquor in this city, such a movement as this ought to have the active sympathy of our citizens.
